HPSA stands for Health Professional Shortage Area. This area can be a city, town, or village that has a population of less than 20,000 and that is located in a county in which a rural health clinic or hospital is located. The NURSE Corps Loan Repayment Program is open to individuals living in Richland and surrounding counties who have served in military field medical service at least one year. For more information, check the website provided.
To recognize future medical leaders, this $3,000 award is available to medical students who will be entering their final year next fall and who have completed or be in the process of completing their training. Applicants not chosen for this award will automatically be eligible. Several awards are available with the following additional requirements:

- Must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or greater
- Must be enrolled in a degree-granting program
- Must complete the application procedure
- Must document a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or greater
- Must have a minimum of 24 term credits from a technical school, college, or university
- Must be an active member of WHIMA
- Must be attending UW School of Dentistry students each spring
- Must be pursuing a career in health information technology
- Must be pursuing a degree in health information management or administration
- Must be an active member of WHIMA
- Must be attending UW School of Dentistry students

Applicants are encouraged to apply for consideration in the spring of the year immediately following their application submission. Scholarship recipients are eligible to receive up to $50,000 in education loan assistance through the Health Professionals (physicians, psychiatrists, dentists, dental hygienists, physician assistants) Student Loan Assistance Program. Loan assistance for the most recently awarded year varies.

The purpose of this scholarship program is to acknowledge and reward academic excellence, leadership and volunteerism. Amounts awarded will be based on the number of qualified applications received for each award. All applications for consideration must be submitted by the deadline indicated on the application form.
